

Southbury 350th Celebration

Arts & Culture Subcommittee

Community Cookbook Project Submission Form

Description:

In honor of Southbury's 350th Anniversary, the Arts & Culture Subcommittee is calling on residents to submit their favorite family recipes that will be put together into a cookbook to be presented and made available at the end of the year.

Rules for Entry:

- You must be a current resident of Southbury to participate.
- Please submit an original family recipe, including category, detailed ingredients and instructions. We ask that the recipes are unique and previously unpublished.
- Categories include:
 - Appetizers
 - Breads & Rolls
 - Soups and Salads
 - Vegetable Dishes
 - Main Dishes
 - Desserts
 - Beverages
 - Allergy-Friendly
- In addition to the recipe, please include a single paragraph explaining a little background information or story about your recipe. You also have the option of submitting a photo.
- The limit is 2 recipes per household, and submissions must be in different categories (an appetizer and a dessert, for example).
- The Arts & Culture Subcommittee reserves the right to exclude submissions that are inappropriate or violate community standards.
- By participating, you agree to have your name, recipe and photos of your submission shared on the Town website, social media and in event-related promotional materials.
- For questions, ideas or guidance, please email artsculturesouthbury@gmail.com.
- Use the Form below to submit your recipe. One form per recipe.
- If returning by hand, please drop off at Town Hall (3rd floor) – 501 Main Street South, Southbury CT at the office of Kevin Bielmeier, Director of Economic Development. Town Hall is open Monday – Thursday, 8:00am to 4:30pm, and Friday, 8:00am – 1:00pm.
- If returning by mail, please send to the attention of Kevin Bielmeier, c/o 350th Arts, Southbury Town Hall, 501 Main Street South, Southbury CT 06488.
